Two representatives of the ANVPAH & VSSP and two experts and a trainee anthropologist went to Macedonia from June 25 to July 2, 2011 to continue the work initiated in February.

This mission, organized in partnership with Basse-Normandie, aimed is to continue the work with the different cities of Macedonia members of the Association of Historic Towns of Macedonia. The delegation visited Veles but also Kumanovo Berovo, Kratovo and Stip and studied with the teams on site about instead of the heritage in their city planning.

The five cities wanted to continue the project by initiating a pilot heritage inventories island. This work developed since March 2012.
