Tuesday, September 6, 2012 in Caen, the ANVPAH & VSSP, in partnership with the Regional Council of Basse-Normandie and in the framework of cooperation between Basse-Normandie and Republic of Macedonia, organized a day entitled 'Management of the architectural, urban and landscape: news and shared approaches'.

This day aimed to propose an overview of heritage planning policies in France and Macedonia, and provide concrete tools for these devices work under reform, especially for ZPPAUP which are expected to become AVAP.

This day focused on the establishment of protected areas and their governance, the legal framework and the associated tax. In addition, several representatives of French and Macedonian municipalities were able to present their towns and cooperation projects around heritage.
