Organized by the Association Prokultura, University of Split, in partnership with the Embassy of France in Croatia, this conference aims to reflect on public policies about heritage while Croatia is ready to integrate the European Union.

The ANVPAH & VSSP was solicited to present the French policies in terms on heritage valorization. David JURIE, Moderator heritage of the City of Bordeaux present the label "Town and Region of Art and History" that has recently obtained his city. This conference will be an opportunity to make contact with the network of Croatian historical cities recently created and explore the possibilities of exchange networks to networks.

The program of the day is available at the bottom of the page.
